
Bonn, 07th of January 2019

CLEANAQUA Blue starts serial production for the worldwide unique drinking water disinfection device "CA Blue 1.0"

In cooperation with the mechanical engineering company Knäpper from Unna, the Bonn-based company CLEANAQUA Blue will begin starting production of its patented product for the rapid disinfection of drinking water from contaminated water tanks or water pipes in mid-January 2019.

Foto: Wolfgang Vogt, www.vogtfoto.de

Thus the Bonn-based company is responding to the growing demand for effective procedures for the safe, cost-effective and easy-to-use disinfection of drinking water, which microbiologically contaminates with increasing temperatures and long downtimes in the domestic and building management systems and water tanks.